25X1

1. At the Kosice (R 49/E 34) airfield, 1,000 x 400 meters, take-offs and landings are possible only in a north-south direction. Call signal of the airfield is Magda. At present the field is a commercial installation. * Six Czechoslovakian sport planes, two Messerschmitt planes and one unidentified observation plane are stationed at the field, which was guarded by 12 SSB personnel and 40 soldiers.  The field is to be expanded in 1950 to provide landing facilities for 60 military planes. ***
2. A new airfield about three times the size of the Kosice field is scheduled for construction northeast of Kosice in the valley of the Ondavy River. ***

25X1 * Comment. Details are reported for the first time.

25X1  Comment. As in 1948, the field seems still to be used exclusively by the Czech Aero Club.

25X1  Comment. This information has not been confirmed.
